Subject: [Junk released by Allow List] Re: ALSO RE: pdc complaint

Hi,

I now have some additional information related to the complaint filed by me on 24 July.

Richard Hild, on his C-4 sch. A form dated 27 July apparently DOES NOT show any expenditure for the mailing about which the complaint was filed. (C-4 is attached.) I do not know if the advertisement was done by the Hild campaign and I make no claim that it was. Maybe it was mailed out by a third party (from Oregon) ????

But I would like you to consider these facts:

The two photographs on the mailer of Mr. Hild in front of a building were taken when he was addressing a crowd at a rally and fund raiser for Tim Ford for appellate court judge on June 28.

How do I know this ? Well, for one thing the house in the pictures on the mailer used to be the home of my Grandparents from before I was born until they passed away, and for another thing, I WAS THERE AT THE TIM FORD RALLY !!!

I can not say who actually took those pictures, but I can say the only person I saw taking pictures that day was Barbara Bradford, the chairman of the Jefferson County Republican Party. I make no claim that those are her photos. But possibly Mr. Hild can say who took the picture of him and his wife that was on the mailer, as it appears he posed for that one.

The Public needs to know who paid for the advertising mailer subject to the original complaint and they have a legal right to know. (The mailer had no "paid for by...." on it.)

(I can certify and mail a signed copy with the above information if it is necessary.)

Sincerely,
Richard Broders
